

DIRK VANDEREYKEN FATES WORSE THAN DEATH: HUNTER

He was raised to be a killer, given extensive training in virtual reality and the best implants.

He has no memories besides his training. He doesn't even have a name.

Those he works for send him out into 2080's most dangerous ghetto to kill people they say are a drain on society.

He has always killed without question, with skill and efficiency. Yet now he is starting to ask questions, questions that may destroy him.
